Character Description

Whatever is in Brooklyn 99. You hide your true personal life because you are ashamed of your father. Your father is Sheriff Huxley. Huxley is a member of a drug ring called The Vile Assembly. He forced you to join as a child. You are happy that he is dead.

You joined the police force to be an informant for The Vile Assembly, but a relationship with Peralta and the others convinced you to leave the The Vile Assembly. Huxley has continued to pressure you to give up information, which you have done. He has paid for a very lavish lifestyle that does not fit your job.

Secrets and Lies

- Detective Pikachu is in the Vile Assembly.
- Neighbors know you as different name/personality: Emily Goldfinch
- Last night at Crime Con, you confided in Jake that you were Huxley's daughter after the Sheriff kept asking to talk to you about The Vile Assembly. Jake was very upset. You haven't spoken to him since.
- You saw Fredrek acting suspicious outside the cemetery two nights ago.
- Last night you got beers with Jim Murphy, he let slip that he does not work for OSHA.

Relationships

- You meet Jim Hopper last year at crime con. Dashing, cool. You are in love with him.
  - Obviously very good friends with Jake Peralta.
  - Fredrek is clearly a hack and very annoying. Real police work is methodical and precise. He is no true P.I.
  - Batman is very intriguing. You once thought about being a vigilante, and you love to hear his stories.

Objectives

1. Make sure your relationship with Jake Peralta is still solid.
2. Find and hide/destroy any evidence of your relationship with Huxley.
3. Jim Hopper loves Joyce. Get some dirt on her and convince her to reject Jim for good.
