Jimmy Murphy
OSHA Inspector

Character Description

FBI agent posing as an OSHA employee, OSHA Man has spent years looking to crack a narcotics ring called the Vile Assembly run by "Mr. Teatime." Murphy currently has the following leads:

(1) Mr. Teatime is a detective of some sort

(2) purportedly has some sort of accent

(3) has a criminal background

(4) is known to be a criminal genius, smug, and holds it over people.

Recently, you have been inspecting Burger Kings (where you met Nancy Drew), but you have also inspected sites around the country, where the Vile Assembly have expanded their turf. This includes Hawkins and Gotham City

Tries to play the part of a typical federal bureaucrat; always talking about OSHA, complaining about the office, etc. The things he says tend to contradict themselves or seem strangely specific. "Oh, that reminds of the time that I was performing an inspection of 2:00PM OSHA at a 711 at 4th and Exchange in NYC when…"

Secrets and Lies

- You try to hide it, but your FBI supervisor regularly calls in, and you have to take it.

- Recently, you met Nancy Drew, and the two have begun a torrid love affair. You have in large part been using Nancy for information, and are concerned that her large fan base may expose your cover.

- Nancy has been very nervous about the invitation to this party, you're not sure why.

- You saw Jake Peralta and Huxley duke it out last night after Crime Con. Peralta won.

Relationships

- During inspections at the Hawkins police station and hardware store, you grew to be friends with Joyce and Hopper.

- Joyce seems suspicious of your secret identity, try to steer clear.

- The Vile Assembly recently expanded into Gotham City. Batman is either involved or on the case.

- You were at the bar late last night trying to avoid Nancy (you still ended up in her hotel room), and got chatting. You may have let something slip, but you can't remember.

Objectives

1. Keep your relationship with Nancy hidden.

2. Discover the identify of "Mr. Teatime"

3. Infiltrate the ranks of the Vile Assembly and compile a list of the members.
